4-H Show

Students demonstrate

Mrs. Bryan's class at Appomattox Elementary School was the scene of excitement last week as students prepared for the demonstration in Saturday 4-H contest. Each child planned a demonstration or an illustrated talk, designed posters and gave the results. Mr. Sweet, the 4-H leader, helped students with their posters before Saturday's contest. As students worked on posters Mr. Sweet also walked around to look at posters and to see if anybody needed help. People who were in the competition Saturday and won blue or red ribbons follow: Thad Shumaker gave a demonstration about preventing diseases in cattle. His demonstration included how to test cattle for Brucellosis. Wendy Lawson's topic was how to make homemade tooth paste. Doug Watson talked about bike safety. Scotty Moore talked about training dogs. Wendy, Thad, and Denise will go to the district contest in April.

In the absence of other students showed their skills. Virginia Jones and Margaret Kelso baked cakes in the classroom. Charles Trent made Kabobs. Bobby Grant demonstrated how to grade eggs with a homemade egg chandler. Emily Thompson made a sewing box while Mary Ann Mayberry hemmed a skirt. Darryl Bryant explained how to maintain a motor. Safety was also illustrated an Giuseppe Shelp's kite safety and Michael Franklin's motorcycle clothing. Most fun was seeing Timmy Turner dressed in his catcher's uniform telling the class what a catcher does and how he protects himself. Animal care was demonstrated by Becky Cook with rabbit care, and Carl Wooten with preventing bad behavior in dogs. Tony Gunter showed how a banana and peanut butter sandwich gives us nutrients needed in a days meal. Angie Mayberry made fudge. Nina Abbit made peanut butter cookies and Edward Johnson fried apples. Finally, Freddy Pennix, showed the class how to do string design and Reginald Booker told how to repair bicycle tires.

Last week the sixth grade hall was full of the smells of cooking, bodies working on posters, excited chatter, and smiles as these students completed an interesting activity.

Six of Mrs. Bryan's class will join other 4-H'ers in Appomattox County, April 11, 1981, at the district contests.

THOMAS C. PANKEY, SR. (center) was sworn in as the new county litter control officer last week by county clerk Barbara Williams, as Little Control Officer-Bill Caldwell look on. Pankey will be empowered to write tickets for little violations in Appomattox County. His primary duty will be to enforce little laws relative to improper dump sites, improper household put-outs, and related an-ti-litter regulations. Anyone with information regarding litter violations may call Mr. Pankey at 352-8511 , or Mr. Caldwell at 352-8183.

Merchants participate in local M&DE program

The Marketing and Distributive Education department at Appomattox County High School recently sponsored a work-and-learn program for its first-year students with local merchants.

"It was our goal to give these students an opportunity to experience what it is like to work in a distributive occupation", said Bruce Fall. "Most of the students taking part in the program were under the age of 16 and had never held a job before."

The store managers took an active part in the program in which they either allowed a student to work under their supervision for a few hours without pay or spent a portion of the morning explaining the store's operations and policies and the basic job tasks and responsibilities of the employees.

The program was a total success and a special thanks goes to the following merchants who took a part in helping to educate our community's future work force: Wilbun's Supermarket, King's Supermarket, Revco Drug Store, Dixie Blend Service Station and Poe's Hardware.

Raiders win no. 6

The Raider varsity baseball team won its fifth and sixth games of the season last week, preserving their undefeated status with wins over Prince Edward and Buckingham.

Tuesday and Raiders scored a 10-4 win over Prince Edward, a victory which, according to Raider Coach Howard Clabouth "wasn't easy."

The Raiders scored four unanswered runs in the first five innings, one in the first inning on hits by Jody Williams and Kenny Wayne Burks, and three more in the fifth inning on hits by John Simmons, pitcher Greg Mayberry and a two-run double by Neal Cole.

Going into the seventh inning, the Raiders held a 4-0 advantage. But in the bottom of the seventh, the Eagles exploded for four runs, tying the score at 4-4.

The score remained 4-4 going into the ninth inning, but in the Raider half of that inning Appomattox sent nine batters to the plate and broke the game open with six runs on six hits.

Kevin Ferguson, John Simmons, Keith Mann, Jody Williams and Bucky Totty all had key hits for the Raiders in the ninth-inning rally.

Coach Clabough noted after the game that the Raiders compiled eight stolen bases during the contest, including two each by Burks and Ferguson.

The Raiders compiled 13 hits for the day, including a three-for-four performance for Jody Williams, and two-for-four performances by both John Simmons and Kevin Ferguson.

Tim Bennett got the win in relief of Greg Mayberry in the seventh inning to make his record 2-0.

"I was particularly proud of the way we came back after the game was tied," Clabough said. The coach also commended Mayberry and Bennett on their pitching performances.

Kevin Mitchell pitched a four-hitter as the Raiders demolished the Buckingham Knights 17-3 Friday at home.

The Raiders collected 15 hits, stole seven bases and scored in every inning except the third in the process of winning their sixth straight game.

Kenny Wayne Burks continued his slugging ways, as he connected for two homers, each with two men on base, for a total of six runs batted in.

Keith Mann, Kevin Ferguson, and Bucky Totty also had two hits each for the Raiders. In addition, Jody Williams, Alan Edmonds, M. J. House and pitcher Kevin Mitchell all contributed doubles to the Raider attack.

Buckingham scored one in the first inning and two more runs in the fifth inning, but Kevin Mitchell kept them in check as he went the distance to pick up his second win of the season.

Clabough noted after the game that all three of his sophomore pitchers, Mitchell, Mayberry and Bennett are 2-0 and have a combined earned-run average of 2.70.

Burks leads the offense with .529 batting average, four home runs and 16 runs batted in. Jody Williams, with a .412 average, follows Burks. Next are Rodney Bryant (.400), Neal Cole (.389), Kevin Ferguson (.368), Bucky Totty (.350), and John Simmons (.313).

Keith Mann leads the team in stolen bases with six steals so far this season.

The Raiders, now 6-0 on the season, will face off against their toughest competition of the season Tuesday, against Liberty, who as of press time Tuesday were 5-0. Next Tuesday the Raiders will play Altavista away at 4 p.m.

Boys' tennis team wins third match

Altavista became the third Raider boys' tennis team victim last Thursday, as the local netters preserved their unbeaten record with a 5-4 win.

Fred Lawson, Andrew Fratrick, James Beaty and John Caldwell all won their singles competitions. Lawson, playing number two seed, defeated Altavista's Jeff Finch 8-6; Fratrick, the number-three seed, beat Altavista's Kevin Brooks 8-5; fourth-seeded Jaes Beaty defeated Altavista's Billy Barbour 8-1; and Caldwell downed Bud Barbour 8-3.

Top-seeded Raider Robert Hubbard fell to Teddy Ferguson 4-8, and Raider Ned Jennings fell to Altavista's Albert Roland, 7-9.

The Hubbard/Fratrick doubles team fell to Altavista's Ferguson/Finch team, and the Raiders' Jennings and Caldwell fell to Brooks and Billy Barbour of Altavista, both matches by the score of 2-8.

however, the Lawson/Beaty team iced the match for the Raiders, defeating Buddy Ottinger and Jimmy Yeatts by a score of 8-1.

Raider coach John Pettyjohn noted that, "Again, this week, the match came down to us needing to win one of our doubles matches. Lawson and Beaty came through for us."

He added, "James Beaty is quietly coming through for us on a consistent basis. He's undefeated in both singles and doubles play this season."

The Raider tennis team, undefeated now at 6-0, is scheduled to face off against Prince Edward this Thursday at 4 p.m. at Prince Edward.
